Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schampel called in the home of Mrs. Mary Bagby Sunday.

Gravel Hill church news

By FLOSSIE WALKER

Revival services were held at Gravel Hill Baptist Church during the week following last Sunday's regular preaching service.

Pastor, the Rev. James Miller preached the morning service. Mrs. Mattie Watson and the New Store Choir rendered beautiful music.

The evening service Sunday was conducted by the Rev. Robert McCray, assisted by one of his choirs.

The Rev. McCray was guest speaker for the revival services each night last week. He delivered many soul-stirring messages.

Guest choirs during the revival included: Monday - Alabama Choir; Tuesday - Peaks Choir; Wednesday - Mt. Pleasant Choir; Thursday - Calvary Baptist; Friday - Zion Baptist. The ushers of each church were also present during the revival. Attendance was excellent throughout the revival.

We were sorry that Mrs. Eloise Holmes could not be with us during Homecoming and revival. We'll be looking for her to join us during our regular preaching service the third Sunday in August.

Members of Gravel Hill Baptist Church wish to thank all the visitors who helped make our revival a success. You are always welcome.

Our prayers go out to the sick and shut-in everywhere.
